The Roanoke Valley is a great place to have a dog. Between the Roanoke River Greenway, the trails on Mill Mountain and the parks scattered across Salem and Roanoke County, there is no shortage of places to explore. The downside shows up at home: hair on the sofa, paw prints in the hallway and a fine layer of fur gathering under every piece of furniture. A regular cleaning service from The Happy Housekeepers helps pet owners keep up.

Living Well With Pets in the Roanoke Valley

Pet hair is persistent. It clings to carpets, drifts into corners and collects along baseboards. The company's standard residential routine includes vacuuming carpets, mopping hard-surface floors, dusting and polishing furniture and dusting window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans. For homes with shedding dogs or cats, those tasks done regularly make a noticeable difference to how the house looks and smells.

Frequency is the key. A monthly visit may not be enough in a home with two large dogs, while a weekly or bi-weekly plan keeps hair and dirt from building up between cleanings. Spring is often the worst time, when dogs shed their winter coats at the same time as pollen season hits the valley. Many pet owners in Cave Spring and Hollins increase their visits during those months and scale back later in the year.

Muddy paws are another challenge, especially after a Look at more info rainy spell when Virginia red clay turns walks into a mess. Entryways, kitchen floors and mudrooms take the brunt of it. During your free estimate, you can ask for those areas to be prioritized, and the crew will give them extra attention every visit. If you have a particular product you want used on your floors because of your pets, staff will use it on request.

Pet owners often want to know how crews handle animals in the home. During the estimate, let the office know about your pets, including whether they should be kept in a particular room or left outside during the visit. Because employees are bonded and insured through the company, many clients are comfortable not being home, and clear instructions help each visit go smoothly.

The Happy Housekeepers has served Roanoke since 1979, is licensed, bonded and insured, and holds an A+ rating with the BBB, with accreditation dating back to 1993. After your first cleaning, someone from the office will call to check that everything, including any pet-related requests, was handled to your satisfaction.

What is included in a standard cleaning service visit?

A standard residential visit from The Happy Housekeepers includes dusting and polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors and full kitchen and bathroom cleanups. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, trash baskets are emptied and cobwebs are removed as needed. Extra tasks can be added to any plan.

Is The Happy Housekeepers licensed, bonded and insured?

Yes. The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, and its employees are bonded and insured through the company itself. That is why many Roanoke clients leave a key and are not home during their cleaning. The company has also been BBB accredited since 1993 and holds an A+ rating.

Do I need to be home during my cleaning?

No. Because staff are bonded and insured by the company, most clients in Roanoke, Cave Spring and Salem simply leave a key or door code. Any access instructions, pet notes or rooms to skip are recorded during your free estimate so each visit runs smoothly.

Does The Happy Housekeepers offer commercial and janitorial cleaning?

Yes. Its Corporate Clean division has served Roanoke businesses since 1986, cleaning executive offices, general offices and medical facilities. Service is available daily, weekly, bi-monthly or monthly, crews are trained by the company and a supervisor is always on call.

How often should I schedule a cleaning service?

It depends on how your home is used. Busy families with pets in Roanoke County often choose weekly visits, many couples find bi-weekly ideal, and smaller homes do well with a monthly reset. The Happy Housekeepers offers one-time, weekly, bi-weekly and monthly plans and can adjust the schedule as your needs change.

Do you bring your own cleaning supplies and equipment?

Generally, yes. The Happy Housekeepers supplies the products and equipment needed for each visit, and Corporate Clean supplies all chemicals for commercial clients. If you prefer a particular product, such as a hardwood floor cleaner or stainless steel polish, just ask and the crew will use it.

Do you provide move-in and move-out cleaning in Roanoke?

Yes. Move-in and move-out cleanings are part of the company's specialized services, and the team also works with apartment managers on turnovers and with builders and contractors on final cleans. Inside-oven and refrigerator cleaning, wall and woodwork washing and light fixture cleaning can be added for a thorough handover.

What areas around Roanoke does The Happy Housekeepers serve?

The company is based at 5145 Starkey Rd in the Cave Spring area of southwest Roanoke County and serves the greater Roanoke Valley. That includes Roanoke City, Cave Spring, Salem, Vinton, Hollins and the surrounding parts of Roanoke County.

How long has The Happy Housekeepers been in business?

The company has served the Roanoke Valley since 1979, when founder Mary Jane Wszolek started cleaning local homes with a promise of satisfaction guaranteed. It added commercial cleaning in 1986 and today is led by President Paula Anderson, still locally owned and operated.

What forms of payment do you accept?

The Happy Housekeepers accepts Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover, which makes paying for recurring or one-time service simple. Your free estimate will set out the price before any work begins, so there are no surprises on cleaning day.

What happens if I am not happy with my cleaning?

The company has worked on a satisfaction guaranteed basis since 1979. After every first cleaning, the office calls to check how it went and note any changes, and if something was missed, they will make it right. You can reach the team at (540) 774-4299.
