A beginner who recognises letters in isolation may still need help when the same letters interactive quran classes kids join. Ask the tutor to listen to a short example before choosing a goal. A useful first target might be recognising a familiar shape in several positions. Revisit the target with a fresh example at the next lesson so the learner can see what has become easier.