How to Obtain a Hungarian Driving License

The journey to getting a Hungarian driving license depends heavily on whether the candidate is beginning from scratch or converting an existing license.

Step-by-Step Process for Beginners

For novice drivers in Hungary, the course involves strenuous theoretical and practical training:

1. Medical Fitness Certificate: Before getting behind the wheel, applicants must check out a family doctor (GP) to get a Class 1 or Class 2 medical certificate verifying physical and psychological fitness to drive.
2. Emergency Treatment Course: Completion of a certified Red Cross emergency treatment course is compulsory. An official certificate should be acquired before passing the last practical test.
3. Theoretical Training and Exam: Applicants should complete a state-approved driving school (Autósiskola) theory course (frequently available in English) and pass a computerized multiple-choice test at a Government Office screening center.
4. Practical Training: Once the theory test is passed, students complete a necessary variety of driving hours (minimum 30 hours, covering at least 580 kilometers) with a certified instructor.

5. Practical Exam: The last action includes a traffic exam assessed by an official state inspector.

Exchanging a Foreign License

Migrants relocating to Hungary face different rules depending upon their nation of origin:

- EU/EEA Citizens: Can generally use their home country license till it expires. Nevertheless, they may voluntarily register it or exchange it for a Hungarian document if they establish residency.
- Non-EU Citizens: Typically allowed to drive on their foreign license (accompanied by an International Driving Permit, if needed) for approximately one year from the date of developing residency. After this duration, they must pass the Hungarian medical test and theoretical/practical tests to obtain a regional license, unless Hungary has a specific reciprocal exchange contract with their home country.

Validity, Renewals, and Replacements

Driving licenses do not last forever, and validity durations vary based upon the driver's age and the vehicle category.

- Standard Categories (B): Generally legitimate for 10 years for chauffeurs under the age of 50. For older motorists, the validity period reduces substantially to make sure routine medical check-ups (e.g., every 5 years or every 2 years for elders over 70).
- Expert Categories (C, D): Typically require medical renewals every 5 years regardless of age, and ultimately more often as the chauffeur ages.

The Renewal Process

Renewing a Hungarian driving license is a structured administrative treatment:
