Roanoke hosts a steady stream of short-term residents. Traveling nurses and medical residents rotate through the hospitals, consultants and engineers come in for project work and new hires stay in furnished units while they look for permanent homes. Corporate apartments and short-stay homes need dependable house cleaning in Roanoke between guests, and customer reviews https://khwcfhp.contently.com/ for The Happy Housekeepers mention corporate apartment cleaning among the jobs the company handles.

Turnover cleaning is a specific skill. Each new occupant should walk into a unit that feels fresh and ready, with no trace of the person who stayed before. That means a complete kitchen clean-up, a total bathroom clean-up, vacuumed carpets and mopped hard floors. Furniture is dusted or polished, window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted and waste baskets emptied.

Kitchens in short-stay units often need extra attention, since every guest cooks differently. Cleaning oven and refrigerator interiors is one of the company's specialized services and is particularly useful between longer stays, when leftover food or spills inside the fridge can create problems for the next guest.
