What Makes a CS: GO Case "Rare"?

However, as brand-new cases are presented, older ones are inevitably relocated to the Rare Drop Pool (typically colloquially referred to as the "terminated" or "tradition" pool).

- The Active Drop Pool: Cases that currently drop to players weekly. Drop rates are high, keeping market value reasonably low (generally under a couple of dollars).
- The Rare Drop Pool: Cases that no longer drop actively. The only way these get in circulation is through the exceptionally low-probability end-of-match drops (estimated at less than 1%) or from players opening their old inventories.

Once a case best cs2 case opening gets in the uncommon pool, its supply becomes strictly finite. As more gamers open them, the total variety of unopened cases decreases. Standard economics takes over: as supply diminishes and demand stays consistent or rises, the cost skyrockets.
