- Pachinko: Appears 2 times on the wheel. Triggers the Pachinko bonus.
- Crazy Time: Appears 1 time on the wheel. Sets off the supreme perk round.

The Top Slot Feature

Above the main cash wheel sits a smaller sized, two-reel fruit machine called the Top Slot. With every spin of the primary wheel, the Top Slot likewise spins immediately. It produces a random multiplier and sets it with a random bet area (either a number or a perk video game).

If the main wheel lands on the exact matching sector, the payment for that number or the multiplier for that benefit round is boosted accordingly. This is where huge payments can begin to form before gamers even reach a perk round.

The Four Extravagant Bonus Rounds

The true body and soul of Crazy Time are its four bonus rounds. These mini-games transportation gamers away from the primary wheel and into immersive, computer-generated reward environments.

1. Coin Flip

The most basic of the four benefit rounds, Coin Flip offers a fast and straightforward mechanic.

- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is placed in a mechanical flipper. Each side is assigned a random multiplier before the flip.
- The Outcome: Whichever color deals with upward when the coin lands identifies the multiplier applied to the player's stake.

2. Cash Hunt

Money Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery design video game where players need to make a split-second choice.

- How it works: A huge screen displays 108 random multipliers hidden behind numerous signs (such as a cactus, a target, a chef's hat, etc).
- The Outcome: Players are given a short countdown to aim and fire an on-screen cannon at a sign of their option. When the timer expires, all symbols reveal their concealed multipliers, and the player wins whatever worth was behind their picked target.

3. Pachinko

Motivated by the standard Japanese arcade video game, the Pachinko bonus round is all about gravity and suspense.

- How it works: The presenter reaches a platform and drops a puck down a big board filled with physical pegs. At the bottom of the board are numerous multiplier worths, alongside a "DOUBLE" zone.
- The Outcome: The puck bounces down the board and lands in among the multiplier slots. If it arrive at "DOUBLE," all multipliers at the bottom of the board double in worth, and the presenter drops the puck a second time. This can duplicate up until the maximum multiplier limitation is reached.

4. Crazy Time

The holy grail of the video game, Crazy Time takes players behind a huge red door into a surreal, Alice-in-Wonderland-style virtual world.

- How it works: Players are faced with a huge virtual wheel including 64 sections filled with large multipliers and "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE" wedges. Before the wheel spins, players need to select one of 3 flippers (Green, Blue, or Yellow).

- The Outcome: The speaker presses a big red button to spin the wheel. Whichever section lines up with the gamer's chosen flipper identifies their prize. If the wheel arrive at "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are doubled or tripled, and the wheel spins again. This procedure can duplicate, potentially resulting in the video game's maximum advertised payment of 20,000 x the bet.

Methods and Approach

While Crazy Time is basically a video game of opportunity governed by random number generators (RNG) and physical physics, players frequently utilize different tactical approaches to manage their bankroll and optimize their home entertainment time.

- The Low-Volatility Approach (The Safety Net):
 - Focusing greatly on numbers 1 and 2, that make up a considerable part of the wheel. This strategy yields regular, smaller sized wins that assist sustain the player's balance for a longer duration.
- The Bonus Hunter Approach:
 - Wagering solely or predominantly on the 4 benefit rounds (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Time). Since these sections appear less frequently on the wheel (just 9 segments total), this approach involves longer droughts in exchange for access to the game's primary feature destinations.
- The Balanced Approach:
 - Spreading little bets throughout both numbers and benefit rounds to guarantee eligibility for the bonus offer mini-games while preserving a cushion from regular number hits.
