Step-by-Step Guide to Ordering a Belgian Driver's License

The procedure of purchasing and gathering a driver's license is managed in your area through the town (Gemeente in Flanders, Commune in Wallonia, or the local municipal offices in Brussels).

Action 1: Meet the Prerequisites

To buy a brand-new standard (Category B) chauffeur's license, the candidate needs to:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Be formally signed up in a Belgian town with a legitimate home permit (National Register or foreigner register).

- Have actually passed both the theoretical examination (Computer-based test) and the practical driving exam by means of an authorized driving center.
- Hold a legitimate pass certificate provided by the test center (valid for a maximum of 3 years from the issue date).

Step 2: Visit the Local Municipal Office (Gemeente/ Commune)

Once the useful exam is successfully passed, the candidate must check out the population or civil registry department of their regional city center. It is a good idea to examine online whether a consultation is required, as lots of communes operate strictly on a booked-schedule basis.

Action 3: Submit Required Documentation

Candidates must bring particular files to the municipal counter snelrijbewijs.com to process the order:

- Identity Document: Valid Belgian identity card (eID) or passport.
- Test Certificate: The initial practical examination pass certificate issued by the driving test center.
- Passport Photo: A recent, color passport-style picture meeting stringent ICAO standards (white background, neutral expression), unless the commune can reuse the image from the electronic ID card.
- Previous License (if appropriate): Any ended, damaged, or foreign license being replaced or exchanged.
- Payment: Fees differ a little depending upon the town, generally varying in between EUR25 and EUR35.

Step 4: Pay and Place the Order

The municipal representative will confirm the paperwork, register the request in the central chauffeur database (DIV - Dienst voor Inschrijvingen van Voertuigen), and collect the administrative cost. Payment can generally be made via debit card or cash. When processed, the order is officially placed.

Step 5: Collection

Production of the credit-card-style license usually takes in between 3 to 7 working days.
