The core facility revolves around a rising airplane. When a round starts, a multiplier starts ticking up from 1.00 x, and the plane takes off. The goal is simple: players need to position a bet and cash out before the aircraft randomly flies away. If a player cashes out successfully, they win their initial stake increased by the existing figure on the screen. If the airplane "crashes" (flies away) before they cash out, the bet is lost.

Secret Features of Aviator
